Dear Paul:

I would like to thank you again for the first-rate schedule which you set up for the current Mid-Career class. With the exception of the one or two points which we discussed, class reaction has been uniformly enthusiastic. I shall be giving considerable thought to some tentative adjustments in the overall program which could result in improvements of mutual benefit, and will drop you a further line in the near future on this subject.

If convenient, we should like to have another session with CIA on Monday and Tuesday, the 8th and 9th of September. Henceforth, I shall try and give you advance dates for future classes as soon as I have set up a tentative schedule.

Sincerely yours,

Ted
